Celebrating the importance of our local libraries, the San Diego Asian Film Festival welcomes every reader to Library Night. Pac-Arts' mission is to create transformational experiences through the Pan Asian media arts by presenting unique, culturally-enriching programs that would otherwise be inaccessible to the public, promoting artistic excellence, innovation and the independent voice, and strengthening San Diego as an arts destination.

One Book, One San Diego is a seven-year-old partnership between KPBS, San Diego Public Library, and San Diego County Library designed to bring the community together through a shared experience of reading and discussing the same book. Still more One Book events have been scheduled at various City and County libraries and partner venues. One Book is made
